WINTER HAVEN – The Winter Haven Police Department (WHPD) is proud to announce a recent donation from the Cypress Gardens Lions Club for the WHPD Explorer Program.

A $1,000 check was presented to Officer James Lovelace, Explorer sponsor along with two Explorer Cadets at the recent Open House held at the Police Department. This donation will help the program with uniform and equipment needs.

The Explorer Program is dedicated to any student who has completed the eighth grade and is between the ages of 14 – 20. The Explorer program focuses on youth who are interested in a law-enforcement career. The program exposes the cadets to a higher level of discipline and community involvement. The Explorers experience a hands-on connection to the community through law enforcement as well as other Police Explorer programs across the state.

For more information about the WHPD Explorer Program and how a young citizen can become involved, log on to the WHPD web site at www.winterhavenpd.com or call 863-295-5905.
