WINTER HAVEN – A 23 year-old woman has been arrested for calling in a bomb threat to a Family Dollar Store in Winter Haven. Shanbrea Nysha Swift (B/F, DOB 11/1/88, 2402 Temple Circle, Haines City) told police that she made the call, but didn't think it was anything too serious.

On Nov. 14, 2011 at approximately 8:40 p.m., the Family Dollar Store, located at 206 Ave. T., NW in Winter Haven received a call advising, "There is a bomb in the building." The caller repeated this several times before disconnecting the call.

An employee at the store immediately called *69 to determine what number the call came from. The employee recognized the number as one listed for the Family Dollar Store in Haines City.

On Nov. 15, 2011 at approximately 10 a.m., police responded to the Haines City Family Dollar in order to locate Swift, who was suspected for making the call. Swift was arrested without incident and charged with Making a False Report of a Bomb (F-2). She was transported to the Polk County Jail.
