WINTER HAVEN – Winter Haven Police are looking for two people possibly involved in the theft of a wallet containing cash, multiple credit cards and other miscellaneous items. The victim's credit cards were used in several locations throughout the Winter Haven area.

On Dec. 24, 2010, the victim's wallet was stolen from the downtown area of Winter Haven. Video surveillance captured the suspect using two of the stolen cards at the 7-Eleven convenience store on 1st St. in Winter Haven.

The suspect is a tall white male in his early-mid twenties with a medium build and short, blonde/light brown hair. He has slight facial hair that appears to be shaved in a thin design. He was wearing a turquoise Aeropostale hoodie with large white writing on the front with black or dark blue jeans.

He is possibly with a short to medium height white female, medium build with long black or brown hair straight hair. She was wearing a black thin jacket with a pink t-shirt and blue jeans.

The suspect is driving a maroon or dark red double cab pickup, possibly a Ford or Toyota Tundra. The truck has dark tinted windows and what appears to be a large yellow drink cooler with a red lid in the bed of the truck. The vehicle appears to have silver trim on both sides of the truck.

If anyone recognizes the photo or has any information regarding this case, please contact Det. Kari Gaskin at 863-292-7924 or Polk County Crime Stoppers at 1-800-226-TIPS. You will remain anonymous and could be eligible for a CASH REWARD.
